

University of St. Thomas Men's Basketball Player Signings

The University of St Thomas and Coach Todd Smith are pleased to announce the signing of three Houston area student-athletes. Melvin Roberts, Caleb Williams and Evan Flance all signed National Letters of Intent to continue their basketball careers at St Thomas. St Thomas Men's basketball will begin competing again during the 2009-2010 season as a member of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics playing in the AII; Association of Independent Institutions.

Evan Flance

After helping The Woodlands Christian Academy win their second straight TAPPS 3A State Championship this year, Evan Flance opted to play basketball for UST. The 6'3" wing averaged 14 points, 5 rebounds and 3 assists per game during his senior season at WCA. According to Coach Smith, "Evan is a player every successful team needs; he is willing and capable of doing whatever it takes to win a ball game. He will be a great representative for our program and our University." Flance was a first team All State and All District selection for the 2008-2009 season.
